Voters Turn Down Center

FIRE, WATER BONDS PASS HANDILY; COMMUNITY CENTER GETS 57% "YES"

The citizens of Daly City Tuesday gave substantial approval to a $390,000 water bond and a $173,500 fire bond, while at the same time turned down, by a few hundred votes, a $160,000 bond for completion of the War Memorial building.

The bond for the War Memorial building received 2302 "yes" votes and 1735 "no" votes. The issue needed a two-thirds majority to pass. Another 390 votes, out of the total of 4037 cast on the building issue, would have put the bond over. Votes cast for the issue amounted to 57 per cent of the total.

The fire bond, also needing a two-thirds majority (or nearly 67 per cent) received approval of almost 72 per cent of the voters. Out of 4047 votes cast on the fire bond, 2906 were for it, 1141 against.

Water Bond

The water bond, being of the revenue type, needed only a simple majority to pass. However, it received the go-ahead from 2842 Daly City voters, or 70 per cent of the total 4053 ballots turned in.

As to the fate of the War Memorial building, Mayor Tony Gaggero said, "We'll try to use the part of the building completed to the fullest extent." He mentioned basketball, badminton and dances as a few of the activities that could be held there. However, the building has only temporary heating facilities and to complete the heating and plumbing set up would take $44,000.

Activities At Center

The mayor said he thought the most advisable plan of action would be to turn over activities at the center to the recreation commission, since they lack adequate space at present.

It has been planned earlier to set up some type of community center commission to handle affairs there if the bond passed.

Gaggero said the building would have to be completed with piece meal allocations from the general fund from time to time. No estimates as to when money from the fund would be available was made, but the mayor said he planned to make a thorough study of the budget.

Completion Plan

One suggestion was put forth by Del Wilson, an ardent supporter of the community center bond. He said he would volunteer time on weekends to landscape the site, and hoped others would be willing to aid in the project. He asked that those interested call him at PLaza 5-4177.

Another plan offered by Wilson and others was that dances be held at the auditorium, the profits to go for completion of the building.

REC APPLICANTS INTERVIEW WILL BE HELD MONDAY

Four applicants for the position of recreation director in Daly City will be interviewed by the city council at a caucus meeting Monday night and formal selection of one of the group to fill the position is expected to take place at the regular council meeting the following Monday.

Those who will be interviewed are: James Mason, Kenneth Redlin, Susan Gordon and Betty Rank.

One of this group will take over the position now held by Elman Rose, who has offered his services until a new director can take the office.

Polls Are Adequate To Handle Voters Here

County Clerk John A. Bruning told THE RECORD this week that polling facilities in Daly City will be able to handle all the local voters who come to cast their ballots Tuesday. Elsewhere throughout the nation election officers had been warned that the extra large turnout expected this year might overflow the polling places.

"Facilities in Daly City and the rest of the county will be adequate," Bruning said. However, he advised those who can do so, to vote before 4 p.m., the time when many working persons not granted time off must go to the polls. He also asked that voters come prepared to make their selections quickly.

Daly City's youth will pay homage to the Halloween spirit by gathering at parties to be held throughout the city tonight. ## No. 76 Bus Starts Route -- Has Buses But Few Riders

THE ROUTE of the new 76 is being marked out here at Dorchester and Junipero Serra by Al Lichtenstein, painter for the muni railway. Service began Monday morning, but Tom Irwin, railway public relations director, said that few persons were taking advantage of the new service which goes into Broadmoor and Westlake. He stated, however, the route is on a three months' trial basis, and many people haven't yet found out about the service.

Local Chamber Will Undergo Reactivation

Promises of an active Chamber of Commerce were in the offing today with the announcement from a group of civic-minded Daly City residents that a re-activation of that body is now underway here.

The group, made up of officers in the practically defunct present Chamber, got together last week and named a chairman of a membership drive to be held until the end of this year.

Purpose of the chamber and the acute need for such an organization here was also stressed.

As it stands, the local chamber has been in an almost complete state of inaction since last June.

Robert Hunter, active civic worker, will head the membership drive. Fred Martin and Marshall Sanders will assist him. Sought is a charter membership of 200 persons.

The fee for charter members will be $12.50, while regular members will be charged $25 for entrance into the organization.

Continuing as officers in the chamber will be Bill Kennedy, president; Dan Harris, vice president; Walter Rector, treasurer; Alice Van Over, secretary.

Harris said that the purpose of the group is to continue with its original aim of bettering the community, but with emphasis on a revitilization of the whole project.

At present the chamber has 26 charter members, while at least 100 is considered necessary for a working group in a community this size.

The nucleus group met again yesterday at Lake Merced Country Club to outline an active program for the future.

Chest Drive Stands At 27.2% Of Quota

CHAIRMAN SAYS DRIVE HERE WILL CONTINUE UNTIL GOAL IS REACHED

With the Daly City-Colma Community Chest drive already extended nearly two weeks, the total contributions to date stand at a meager 27.7 per cent of the quota of $8,500 set for the area, reports Fred Bertetta, local chairman. Bertetta also announced that the drive here will continue until the quota is reached.

Leading the separate drives within the total drive is the residential section, which has collected $881.80, or 50 per cent of the quota.

The business division to date has brought in $844.50, which is 37.8 per cent of the quota. Heading this group is J. A. Rohl of PG&E, who has been given time off from his duties to work in the fund drive.

Elmer Kennedy, heading the employee collections, announced that $575 has been brought in, making 27.7 per cent of the total sought.

One of the reasons cited for Daly Citys poorer-than-usual Community Chest showing was San Francisco's United Crusade campaign. Many residents of Daly

RECORD NUMBER LOCAL RESIDENTS CAN VOTE IN NATIONAL CONTEST

It looks to be a safe bet that a new record for voting in the national election will be set here when the people of Daly City go to the polls again Tuesday to decide on the new president, a representative to congress, 24 state, and two county propositions.

A total of 5,500 persons voted in the last national balloting, a new record at that time.

There are now 9,627 persons registered here to vote in the national contest and with partisans of both sides kindling the race to a high pitch, a good percentage of this number is expected to turn out.

Daly City, long a democratic stronghold, is expected to give the nod to Governor Adlai Stevenson, although General Dwight Eisenhower is expected to attract a few more votes that did Thomas E. Dewey, '48 GOP offering.

In the presidential contest four years ago, Dewey garnered 1716 votes, while his opponent, Harry S. Truman, registered 3,167, nearly twice as many.

The only other battle for political employment pits Democratic Harold Taggart against Republican Arthur Younger, who seek a congressional seat from this district. Taggart has strong backing here in Daly City and is expected to fare better in the junior-size race in this city. The two candidates have waged a hard fought, and sometimes bitter, campaign throughout the county.

Polls will be open Tuesday from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. (See THE RECORD's recommendations on this page.)

Merchants' Association Money Will Go To Chamber of Commerce

Frank Lombardi, president of the non-active Merchant's Association, has anounced that all the association's funds will be turned over to Daly City's revitalized Chamber of Commerce.

The money is schedu'ed to go for Christmas decorations in the city.

Chest Drive Stands At 27.2% of Quota

City who work in San Francisco give at their place of employment, but do not realize that none of this money aids local welfare and social causes.

A few of the many worthwhile organizations made possible by Community Chest money are the YMCA youth program, the blood bank, the visiting nursing service, which especially aids families with broken homes, and the girl scout program.

It has been pointed out that the girl scout program in Daly City-Colma includes 621 girls. Cost for maintaining each girl in the organization is from $8 to $10 yearly, all of which comes from Community Chest contributions.

While Daly City has yet to reach its Chest quota, this year has been reported exceedingly poor.

Lack of helpers in Daly City proper, especially in the Crocker Tract and Vista Grande, has been one of the factors. Persons willing to aid the drive have been asked to contact Fred Bertetta, chairman.

The county drive as a whole has also waned this year, being at present $50,000 short of its goal.

Dennis, Colma recreation co-chairman and Mrs. A. R. Montgomery, recreation chairman of Colma PTA.

Richard V. Liberty Named Court Clerk

Richard V. Liberty, 68 Flournoy street, Daly City, has been named clerk of the new municipal court which will become operative January 1.

He was selected for the position by Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr., who was elected judge of the new muni court in June.

The new court system will include the entire north township of San Mateo county.

Liberty has for the past two years been a law clerk for Bocci in his offices here, and before that was employed with the Bank of America, following his graduation from the University of California in 1949.

Council Asked About Edgemar St. Drainage

Two residents of the Edgemar street area appeared at Monday night's council meet to inquire if drainage installations being put in on that street would be adequate during the coming winter.

One of the visitors at the meeting asked if the sewage system would be able to handle the rains. He pointed out that last year the situation was anything but desireable there when mud and water accumulated in the runoff.

City Administrator Dan Andersen explained that the city will have access to pumps this year and will be able to handle the problem.

She's All Yours -- Water Department Gets New Truck

Four Jeff Youths To Juvenile Home

Four teen-aged Jefferson high school students were turned over to county juvenile authorities at Hillcrest Saturday after allegedly taking loot from the cafeteria and photography room at the high school.

One of the youths was spotted running from the high school with the loot by Officer John Coleman and Auxiliary Officer William Loomis. The officers noticed the 16-year-old junior crossing the street with a box on his shoulder. Three other boys, 14, 15 and 16 years old, were spotted running across a lawn in front of the high school.

After stopping the four, the two officers checked the school and discovered the cafeteria had been entered by breaking a window in a door. Take was a quantity of food and photographic equipment. All the boys, officers said, were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Tax Bills Coming; Take Sharp Rise

Daly City residents began receiving their county tax bills this week and many have already discovered that "they-aint-what-they-used-to-be."

Some tax assessments have been increased as much as 87 per cent over last year.

Of every tax dollar collected by the county, 65 cents goes to support of schools, eight cents to special districts under local boards and 27 cents to county government and districts under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors.

Hardest hit by the new 50 per cent boost in property assessments will be the veterans, who are allowed $1000 exemptions on property valuations. In Daly City a veteran whose home was last year assessed at $1065, after the $1000 deduction, paid $56.91 in taxes.

This year with his home, after deduction, being assessed at $2110 because of the blanket assessment raise, his taxes will be $99.26.

Property Hearings Closed by Council

A hearing on property at 356 Westlake avenue was closed at Monday night's city council meeting and Building Inspector George Hopman said if improvements were not made on the property it would be torn down.

Mrs. Ruth Cryer, 344 Westlake avenue, appeared at the meeting with the complaint that a new owner had taken over the property, but that it was still in a delapidated condition.

Councilman Jim Kennedy pointed out that the new owner had purchased the property with the understanding that she would assume responsibility to make it presentable.

Mrs. Cryer said she appeared at the meeting to speak in behalf of herself and neighbors, who have complained at the condition of the house and yard at 356 Westlake.

Hearing was also closed on the petition of Erna Trautmann, 379 San Diego avenue, who asked for permit to use that property for business purposes.

The Sequoia semperviren has a root system that is wide-spreading and rather shallow.

SCHOOL DISTRICT WILL GO AHEAD ON FOURTEEN ROOMS

A contract totalling $677,678 for construction of new rooms at Colma was signed between the Jefferson elementary school district board of trustees and A. F. Steward, contractor, at the last regular board meeting.

Additions to be made at the school include 14 classrooms, a multi-use room, a special activities room, two shop rooms, home arts, library and science rooms.

Stewart, who operates from Berkeley, said grading operations would be started in the near future.

The board also authorized a contract with the landscape firm of Eckbo, Royston & Williams for site development plans at the lower Garden Village school.

During the meeting reports were read by H. Z. Weibel, superintendent, on the work of the coordinators on the school staff in art, speech, guidance and pupil accounting, physical education, music, business management, school nursing and curriculum.

A request was submitted to the board by the custodial staff for a job classification plan.

An invitation was given by President McKay of the Broadmoor Property Owners' association for a representative of the school district to appear at the association's meeting on Nov. 13 to present the financial needs of the district.

We Can Lose Self Government Here

(Ed. Note: We believe the following editorial from "Christopher New Notes" contains some sound statements on the matter of voting, and therefore are presenting it to the citizens of Daly City for their consideration:)

We may not have self government too long, if the proportion of voters continues to decrease. Few realize that the number of potential voters in the USA has increased from 83,000,000 in 1940 to 96,000,000 in 1950. So even if 56,000,000 vote on November 4th, it means that another 40,000,000 will have remained away.

Let's take a look at the percentage of eligible voters who used their privilege in free countries in recent national elections:

|---|---|
| Australia | 96% voted (1951) |
| Great Britain | 83% voted (1951) |
| Sweden | 80% voted (1950) |
| Western Germany | 75% voted (1949) |
| Canada | 74% voted (1949) |
| Israel | 72% voted (1951) |
| United States | 51% voted (1948) |

In November, 1948, the total vote was 48,402,070. The difference between winners and losers was 2,135,747. Divide the difference in half, and you will find that 1,067,874 votes meant the difference between victory and defeat. And yet 40 million eligible voters failed to vote.

Our government depends for survival on the majority taking the time and trouble to go to the pols. Failure to vote may be a serious sin of omission.

Remember, Hitler first came to power in a legitimate election. All his followers took great care not only to vote but to get others who thought the Nazi way to vote. The millions of good Germans who didn't bother little realized they were helping Hitler and bringing death and destruction to themselves by their very neglect. Yes, the absent are always wrong!

It's not too late to stir up some of the 40,000,000 who ordinarily fail to vote. You will be working for the greatest good of your country and God will bless your efforts.

Here are a few steps, previously recommended by the Christophers, through which you can help right now to fulfill your responsibility to God and country:

1. Study the candidates. Look up their past records, what they stand for, whether they have a reputation for keeping their promises.

2. Check on the voting record of your present representatives. Ask your local newspapers to print their record.

3. Stimulate others to vote (within the limits prescribed by your State laws). Explain where and when to register and vote.

4. Offer your services for essential chores and "leg work" in some pre-election job of your own choosing. Help to arrange transportation and baby sitters for those who might not otherwise be able to vote.

5. Express your preference under any circumstances. If your choice is limited to candidates who are not ideal, remember that a vote for the best available may be better than no vote at all.

6. Vote for those, regardless of party, who stand for the preservation of God given heritage of free constitutional government.

Let's Get Both Sides in Daly City

Mrs. Hugo Franzen, fluoridation's most ardent and garrulous foe, has made the statement many times that no public officials will debate publically with her on the subject.

She has, in sundry missives (note letter to editor column), public appearances and private tete a tetes presumably "laid low" all proponents of fluoridation. In fact, according to Mrs. Franzen, there is only one side in the argument—her side.

This very assumption, whether one favors or opposes the fluoridating of public waters, is an insult to the intelligence of readers, who have the right to decide for themselves on such matters.

Therefore, THE RECORD asked two men in the county, both qualified and competent to speak on the subject of fluoridation, if they would be willing to discuss the matter publically with Mrs. Franzen. These two men, Harold Chope, health director of San Mateo county, and Gene Howell, county public health engineer, both agreed that they would be glad to take part in such an activity.

Therefore, for the edification of citizens here, we believe that a forum of this type should be held here, so the people of Daly City can get a chance to form their own opinions rather than have them stuffed down their throats by self-styled experts.

How Does This City Stand on Civilian Defense?

What is today's status of civilian defense organization in Daly City?

City Administrator Dan Andersen, who, not by choice, is director of civilian defense here, said this week that resources of the volunteer fire and police departments would bring a total of 90 men to the scene in event of disaster.

He said this compared favorably with the available forces in other cities this size.

However, he explained, the city is entirely lacking in wardens, who play a big part in adding needed personnel to civilian defense units.

E. George Davis, assistant regional co-ordinator for the state office of civilian defense, said in July that Daly City had one of the worst civilian defense setups in the state.

At that time he said the basic requirements of a civilian defense organization were lacking here. Davis pointed out that while Andersen, who was director at that time also, showed interest in the program, he did not have the time to devote to it.

Andersen stated this week that the time element was the big factor. He said he had been seeking a full-time director here, to no avail.

The city at present has a full-scale program mapped out for Daly City, but lack of personnel and interest has kept the program from becoming a reality.

In July, Davis said that Daly City, in the main, needed a general staff, an organization of volunteers (especially air raid wardens), and a control center.

A four-months' lapse of time has not seen any of these things come about. An efficient civilian defense organization here is long overdue.

Oh, What To Do With the War Memorial Building?

Now that the bond issue for completion of the War Memorial building has flunked, there stands a good chance that the $400,000 structure will go to pot because of non-use.

As any engineer of builder will readily testify, a vacant building will soon deteriorate.

Besides a $400,000 haunted house, the city will also have on its hands a nice parcel of property in front of the building that looks more like Mrs. Wiggs' cabbage patch than a public project.

But there is a way to avoid this turn of events.

It has been suggested that volunteers, who have a little time off on weekends, get out and start the landscaping themselves.

Then to gain funds for completion of the building, dances could be held in the auditorium, with profits going to a fund for that purpose.

A number of Daly City residents who were dismayed that the bond failed, but who didn't want to admit defeat yet, have preferred these suggestions.

We commend them for their ingenuity and believe that their plans could result in the completion of the civic site. There will be a lot of planning to be done and a lot of elbow grease to be used but the idea sounds like one solution to a very grave problem.

Movement Away from Big Cities Is Desirable

With the atomic bomb and probably the hydrogen bomb available for use should another major conflict break out, it has become apparent that, among other things, we must spread out for safety.

This has been the incentive back of the construction of many industrial plants in outlying areas. Targets spread over a wide area would make the problem of enemy attackers much tougher than they would be if closely concentrated.

This emphasis on widely dispersed construction is having a marked effect on the American scene. It is intensifying the trend away from the the cities to suburban and rural areas. Even without the spur of defense dispersal, the American people are showing an ever greater preference for life away from congested centers.

The result is that the number of small communities is fast increasing. And at the same time, small community life is changing, becoming more city-like on a small scale. The modern shops with their smart apparel, the branch banks with their big city service, the supermarkets, the fine theaters, the higher standard of local art and littie theater groups, the close link with world affairs—all these things have changed the small town scene.

It's a change for the better. The small town advantages along with the big city conveniences is a combination hard to beat. We know of none better.

San Bruno Man Favors Proposition No. 3 As Fundamental To Democracy, Justice

Editor, The Record

Dear Sir:

I am for Proposition No. 3 because I believe it is mandatory in justice that the non-profit private schools be accorded the same treatment extended to other institutions which also contribute to the general welfare.

To continue to tax these schools is to impose a penalty on people who already are voluntarily assuming a far greater than proportionate share of the costs of educating our children.

A "yes" vote on No. 3 is an expression of fundamental democracy and decency.

Mrs. Martini Says Writer on Sectarian Schools Is Confused About Whole Issue

Dear Editor:

Anne Ingersoll, writer of that interesting letter you published last week, is, I fear, rather confused about the whole issue of sectarian schools and their place in American life. As a graduate of a sectarian (Catholic) high school and college I think that I can straighten her out on a few points especially in regard to the Catholic schools which make up the greatest number of sectarian institutions.

To begin with Miss Ingersoll seems afraid that exempting sectarian schools from taxation will prove harmful to public schools. Actually the reverse is true. By educating a sizeable portion of California's children these private schools save the taxpayers $41,000,000 annually.

Moreover if sectarian schools did not educate this large group of pupils it would be up to the state to do so—something of a calamity in these days of teacher shortages, inadequate facilities and the resulting half-day sessions in many districts.

Nor are sectarian schools delinquent when it comes to imbuing their children with the ideas of American democracy. United States history and civics (or government) are compulsory subjects in these schools. Their graduates have fought with great valor in the recent wars. What is more there has never been an instance of a person of subversive leanings found teaching in a Catholic school—which is more than can be said for some public schools.

As for Mrs. Ingersoll's contention that religious schools are competing with public education I might point out that parochial educators have neither the desire nor the facilities to teach great masses of children now attending public schools. The Catholic schools (I am concerned mainly with them) are designed primarily for Catholics, to give them an education based on strong religious principles. This is something a non-sectarian institution cannot do.

Sectarian and public schools can and should exist side by side. As American citizens we have the right to send our children to the scholos of our own choosing. If we are willing to pay extra for sectarian education in addition to paying taxes for state schools, it seems to me that we are doing the state of California a favor rather than trying to undermine its educational system.

Yours very truly,
Doris Martini

Mother Of Child At Juvenile Hall Cites Information About Pictures Taken There

To the Editor

Dear Sir:

A mother called me a few days ago and said that she had some important information about which the taxpayers should be informed. She stated that her child was at Hillcrest, the Juvenile Hall, when the pictures showing a room as being overcrowded was taken. Her child informed her that beds were taken down in some of the other rooms and placed in one room for the taking of the pictures. Children from other rooms were then brought in to be included in the pictures. The mother's name has been given to all the newspapers for verification but she has requested that her name be withheld from publication.

The entire campaign which the Probation department has waged in order to get the Juvenile Hall Bond Issue passed has been based upon deceit. They have issued fraudulent figures, based upon dependent children when they know that dependents are not a factor in this bond issue, and they have resorted to dishonest pictures. The endorsements which they have received have been gotten by this mis-information and by the concealing of the important and revealing figures which would prove that they do not need more space for delinquents only.

It would be a very good idea for San Mateo taxpayers to take a trip into San Francisco and see the four million dollar juvenile probation building built in the name of "Juvenile Delinquency." It too was built to "cover the needs of the future." You will find a huge 3-story building plus other outlying buildings, expensively landscaped, with long corridors, wide stairways, and so big that they have to have a public speaking system to talk to one another because they are so far apart from one another. But most of all you will find emptiness. Room after room with no one in it, and no sign of usage, and court rooms, judges chambers, and rooms for prosecution department officials that are only used once a week. San Franciscans call it the PROBATION DEPARTMENT BONANZA. And how was the Juvenile Prosecution department able to influence the taxpayers to the extent of digging down in their pockets to the tune of $4,000,000.00? They frightened the money out of them by exaggerating their needs and by magnifying the sins of youth and by stressing the few unusual and especially vile cases. They mis-represented themselves to the public by phraseology and terminology intended to leave the impression that they were an agency for the PREVENTION of juvenile delinquency which they are NOT.

This is the pattern which the Probation department wants us to follow in San Mateo county. We must spend our dollars for prevention, and not keep pouring it down the drain pipe of prosecution.

Writer Says Two Systems of Education Are Outgrowth of American Way of Life

Daly City, Calif.
October 27, 1952

Dear Editor:

No one will find fault with Mrs. Lyle Ingersoll's letter urging support of the public school system. It is the duty of every American to support our public schools.

Two great systems of youth education have developed as a natural outgrowth of our American way of life. One of these, and by far the larger, is the public school system. The other system is that made up by the various non-profit private schools. Together, these two fundamental systems—public schools and non-profit private schools—provide the education received by nearly all of the nation's child population.

Our forefathers attended private, religious-type schools. As a matter of fact, the non-profit private schools and the public school, as we know it today, came into existence together in this nation. They supplemented one another. They are actually partners and not competitors in the instruction of young Americans.

The state sets standards in education, prescribes the basic courses of study, qualifications of teaching staffs, etc. The private schools follow the public school curriculum. They include everything that the public schools offer, including of course, instruction specified by state standards in certain of the basic skills, and in civics, United States history, etc. They add one more period to the school day during which formal religious and moral instruction is imparted. School records of all these schools are, of course, open to probation officers, school attendance personnel, and all other qualified officials.

It is the inherent right of parents—a natural right and a Constitutional right of citizenship, guaranteed by the United States Supreme Court—to educate their children in the schools of their own choice. Parents may choose a public school, or a Lutheran or Presbyterian or Baptist or Catholic or Seventh Day Adventist or Episcopal or any other privately supported school they choose for their children. No true American, no staunch believer in our Democratic principles, would deny parents this privilege affirmed by our Bill of Rights and confirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States. Nor would they say, "there shall be no schools but the public schools," for such absolutism can only exist behind iron curtains.

U. S. Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois in an address to educators said, "I hope that we may preserve differences in education. I am a believer in the system of public education, but I am also a believer in a system of education, standing beside the public system, in which parents who have certain religious standards and certain ideas of moral training may be permitted full freedom to send their children to this alternative type of school."

No true Christian would find fault with religious instruction being imparted to children in private schools, especially since they subscribe to the idea that all religions are good—and that only NO religion was bad.

Pasadena, which went through a nationally famous controversy over public education recently, had a $50,000 inquiry on what the people wanted. It was conducted on the poll system operated by 140 committees. The vote was outstanding in its emphasis on the necessity for religious education. By almost a three to one ratio, citizens desire their children to be taught moral and spiritual values. By almost the same majority, they preferred a planned program within the school rather than released time for outside instruction. Certainly no one would accuse these good people of creating a division in thought.

The absolute proof that private non-profit schools are performing a highly satisfactory function in the field of education lies in the very fact that the state legislature overwhelmingly passed the Waters bill. That these private schools are working shoulder to shoulder with the public schools in the common task of educating our California school boys and girls and are achieving as splendidly and as conscientiously in the common task as are their public school allies, is proven irrefutably by the action of the legislature. The legislature in voting 108 to 3 for the Waters bill, and Governor Warren in signing it, automatically gave the non-profit private schools a 108 to 3 vote of confidence for educational service to our state's youth.

Sincerely,
John E. Colthurst

Mrs. Franzen Says Fluoridation Is Being Pushed With Every Means By Proponents

Editor, The Record

Dear Sir:

The fluoridation scheme is being pushed with every means available by the fluoridators. A typical example of the character of those promoting fluoridation follows:

In order that the citizens of each community might have the facts on fluoridation a public forum or debate should be presented, in the traditional American fashion, with both sides at one time, permitting questions from the audience.

Those of us opposing this scheme thought we had such a meeting scheduled for Palo Alto, Oct. 14, 1952.

Dr. Oliver Byrd, professor of health education. Stanford university, and Dr. Fred C. Hadeler, president of Palo Alto Dental Society, graciously accepted our invitation to present the proponents side. Dr. Gunn, supervisor of schools, agreed to chairman the meeting.

However, all three withdrew, two at the last minute, and would not speak.

The meeting was held as scheduled, without the proponents, but a Mr. Pearl, chemical engineer (so he said) from San Jose, gave some of the arguments which that side invariably offers.

Several people contacted me later and asked if I realized the gentleman was using perfect smear tactics. Naturally I was quite aware of it at the time—after 18 months on this battlefront I could hardly be unaware of it.

My report was composed mainly of direct quotes from the congressional hearings on fluoridation, Congressman Miller's report and the scientific data of qualified scientists. That report, said Mr. Pearl, was filled with inaccuracies. The natural poison fluorine in the water is the same as the chemical poison fluorides, he insister, and added he ought to know.

To keep the record straight I quote from Report 2500, House of Representatives. Congressman Miller. "It should be recognized that while there are some three or four million people living in areas where there are fluorides in the water, these fluorides come in a natural combination with other elements in nature. This can give an entirely different reaction than when raw fluorides by themselves are placed in drinking water."

As a result of those hearings, one appalling fact was brought to light—the only scientists who are for fluoridation are those "parroting each others opinions" as Congressman Miller stated, they are not qualified on the subject. The scientists who are qualified on fluorine are all against fluoridation. We have no qualified scientists on fluorine in this vicinity.

Mr. Pearl said he had known how wonderful fluorides are for children for many years and wanted his children to have them. Upon cross examination by the audience he admitted he was not giving fluorides to his children, though they can be purchased in pills and tablets. Wonder why?

The key to the whole fluorine plot is Congressman Miller's reference to the fact that mice and rats fed fluorides underwent mental deterioration. This is the perfect way to impair our brain and make morons, zombies and slaves out of us, the trusting, unsuspecting American people. Human beings are far more sensitive to fluorides than rodents.

I would suggest, as one doctor suggested to me, that every doctor and dentist who endorses, advocates or promotes fluoridation be boycotted. If he is so ignorant he does not know the truth about fluorides, he might be as ignorant on another important subject. If he does know and is deliberately dishonest, you should boycott him anyway. That is the simplest way to stop this treason.

Dr. Henry Leicester, biochemist, waylaid me in the hall following the meeting stating my figures on Grand Rapids, Michigan, were dishonest. I quote directly from a letter from Congressman Miller, to Dr. W. B. Prothro, director, department of public health, Grand Rapids, Michigan, dated May 26, 1952. ". . . the number of deaths from heart disease and its complications was 1031 for Grand Rapids as compared to 585 in 1944. . . . the population increased only 7.8%. . . . I trust you will see fit to correct the error. . . . Unless this is done promptly I will cause to have mimeographed the enclosed letter, and insert in the Congressional Record and will give as wide a distribution to the statement as possible."

I want to commend your press for being the guardian of the citizens in that vicinity. Only when the citizens themselves realize the full horror of fluoridation will they appreciate the open press in Daly City. Keep up the good work!

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Hugo Franzen

Paul Thomas Cites Reason For Failure Of Bond Issue Here

(Ed. note: The following letter was received this week and is intended by the writer to be an open letter to the city council.)

Gentlemen:

On Tuesday, October 28, 1952, the proposed bond issue of $160,000 for completion of our War Memorial Center was defeated. Would you like to know why? Of course you would.

In plain and simple words, the bond issue was defeated because you, as a group, refused to listen to the people. You forgot, gentlemen, for a while at least, that you represent the people and are not the people.

Monday, June 9, your council voted "no" to a request by our school board that they be permitted to use a portion of the Center for gravely needed classrooms. This decision on your part brought about an immediate rumbling of protest from the people which was climaxed by a plea on the part of the PTA mothers that you reconsider your decision. Once again you voted "no" to the plan to permit children to use our beautiful new building. This, gentlemen, was your mistake.

We all make mistakes, but most of us set about to rectify one after we realize that we have made it. To my knowledge the only rectifying you did was to get the school superintendent to admit some time later that even if you offered him the whole building he couldn't use it. Of course he couldn't because by that time the whole planning for the coming school year was in effect.

You took it for granted, gentlemen, that since your people had passed all bond issues set before them that they would pass this one too. We who were opposed because of what had gone before waited anxiously for you to come out and tell us that when completed, the building would be open for use to the Boy and Girl Scouts, or at least for some worthy cause. No such word came from you. The only facts you have set forth concerning the use of our center is that adult organizations can hold their meetings and parties there for a small charge of maintenance fee.

Your campaign to get the bond issue passed was good, but not enough. We concede that you won some yes votes by throwing this issue in with two well deserved issues on the day of voting. Your parade won a few votes. However, as you now know, gentlemen, to get our money you have to show a worthy cause. If there is a worthy cause in conection with this Center please let us know what it is, and if we agree, we will pass the necessary bond issue for its completion the first chance we get.

Sincerely,
Paul S. Thomas

Junior Red Cross To Launch Campaign

Marking the 35th anniversary of the founding of American Junior Red Cross the San Mateo county chapter will launch its annual school enrollment campaign tomorrow, Mrs. Lionel Clumeck, Junior Red Cross chairman, announced today.

It was 35 years ago, while the vanguard of the American expeditionary force was preparing for battle in France, that another younger army was founded in the United States by proclamation of President Wilson—an army which, by the time the Armistice was signed, had grown to about 11,000,000. This army, the American Junior Red Cross, did not go into battle. It was created to give millions of American school children the opportunity they desired to serve their country.

Through the years, its principal objectives have been to help disabled servicemen and hospitalized children, as well as children in war-stricken countries across the seas. Last year National Junior Red Cross membership numbered more than 19.000,000 young people enrolled in elementary and secondary schools. The many thousand students in San Mateo county schools have proven their desire to be of service to others, and through the American Junior Red Cross local and national programs our young people are learning practical lessons in assuming civic and social responsibilities within our community.

There is a Junior Red Cross in your child's school. Encourage him to take part in its activities.

Lions Preparing For Day at Pumps

Daly City-Colma Lions this week asked all motorists to kindly let their gas tanks run low come Saturday, Nov. 8, the day when the local club will hold their "day at the pumps."

Each Lion will be asked to give two hours of his time toward the propect at Arneson's Chevron station. They will fill up gas tanks, clean windshields, check tires, clean cars, check oil and off all the other services expected to be found at a gas station.

All the proceeds of the day's work will go to a fund for the girl scouts' summer camp.

Lions Grant Williams will act as master of ceremonies for the day's activity by speaking through a loud speaker conveniently located. President Hal Willis is currently working on an arrangement whereby the Daly City police will bypass the Mission street traffic into the station.

DUCK SHOOTING

Duck season opened with many a bang on Buena Vista lake in Kern county last Friday when large numbers of hunters turned out to bag large numbers of ducks, reports the National Automobile club.

Daly City-Colma Women First To Aid In Stuffing of Mail for TB Association

From now until seventy five thousand pieces of mail are in the San Mateo post office for Nov. 17 mailing, headquarters of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health association will continue to be a bee hive of activity. The first volunteers to arrive were a group of six women from the Daly City-Colma area. Under the direction of Dorores Moreno, director of volunteers for the Seal Sale, these ladies and groups from the AWVS, Par Avance, AAUW, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and many other organizations will work around the huge table, readying the seals for mailing to San Mateo county residents.

This year marks the 46th annual Seal Sale. The familiar little seals with a different design each year, but always including the double barred cross symbol of the continuing fight against TB, have become as much a part of the American holiday tradition as Yule trees and holly.

"No package or card mailed at this season is complete without the Christmas Seals," Mrs. R. E. Pettingil, Seal Sale chairman, said today. "It is through the universal use of the seals that TB Associations all over the country have been able to combat so successfully the dread disease. In San Mateo county," she pointed out, "101 new cases of TB were reported last year. It is the constant search for those who have the disease in its early stages, when it is more easily and quickly curable, that prevents its spread. In the sixteen years of its existence, the San Mateo county association has constantly endeavored to educate the public to the menace of the disease. Approximately 140,000 free chest x-rays have been given in an effort to discover cases in the county, in the interest of public health. We urge everyone to buy and use the little seals to aid in the fight against TB."

Call for Volunteers To Aid in Elections

A call for Democratic volunteers to help in pre-election and election day activities has been issued by Frank Rose, Democratic county committee chairman.

Pre-election duties will consist of contacting each Democratic voter in all the county's precincts to urge them to vote. Election day work will include checking the polls.

Volunteers in Daly City will be enrolled at the demo headquarters: 6454 Mission street, PL. 5-2262; PL. 5-2263.

Tomorrow D-Day for Operation Doorknob; Scouts Will Urge Citizens To Cast Ballots

Saturday, Nov. 1, will be "D-Day" for "Operation Doorknob," climax of the Boy Scouts' all-out campaign to encourage their elders to "Get Out And Vote" on election day, Nov. 4.

In San Francisco alone, better than 7,500 scouts—Boy Scout, Cub Scouts and Explorers—will climax weeks of speech-making, sign-posting, and various other preparations, by placing 300,000 Liberty Bell cut-outs on 300,000 San Francisco doorknobs. The cut-outs bear the message: "Vote as you think—Think when you vote. Today's youth counts on you—Use your freedom to vote!"

The Boy Scouts have taken over the project on a national scale. It is the largest single operation the organization has ever undertaken. Throughout the nation, the scouts will bring their message to more than 30,000,000 homes.

After school on election day, the scouts will follow through with return calls on their "Operation Doorknob" customers, reminding them to get out and vote, if they haven't already done so.

Scouts are also delivering absentee ballots to hospitals and old-folks homes. In cooperation with the Toastmasters' clubs of San Francisco, they've organized a Speakers Bureau and have been making speeches before community organizations of all kinds, as well as radio and television appearances.

Scouts are also urging the public to be prepared—to read and understand the propositions and to fill out their voting cards before they go to the polls, in order that they may vote intelligently, and also speed up the lines at the polls.

On Oct. 31, Nov. 1, and Nov. 3, some 300 Explorer Scouts, working in shifts, will instruct the public in how the voting machine works, using portable demonstrators furnished by the Registrar of Voters. They will be located in 30 key spots throughout the city.

The magnitude of the scout effort was occasioned by the fact that in the 1948 presidential election only 51% of the eligible American voters went to the polls and cast their ballots.

Taggart Visits Here; Lauds City's Growth

Harold F. Taggart, who is waging a strong campaign to become San Mateo county's congressman, spent Saturday here meeting old friends and making new ones on a tour of Daly City.

Taggart, who not only is endorsed by Democrats, but many Republicans, veterans and labor organizations, commended the many improvements made here. He remarked especially on the progress of new homes and other building construction going in full swing.

Taggart pointed out that Daly City's votes could be the deciding factor in his race against Arthur Younger for the congressional seat.

Local Man Chosen For Rate Advance

NAVAL SUPPLY CENTER, PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—James S. Yonan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Yonan of 196 Irvington street, Daly City, has been selected for advancement in rate to storekeeper third class, USN.

The advancement is a result of competitive examinations conducted this summer on all ships and Naval establishments throughout the world.

Since every Navy man has two jobs, the test was divided into military questions covering knowledge of seamanship, gunnery and military law, etc., and the professional part concerning his Navy trade.

Colma Couple Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary Sunday

MR. AND MRS. S. W. BRYANT look on at the earliest existing copy of THE RECORD, 1909, which is not quite as old as the existance of their married life. The couple will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday at their home, 38 Taylor street, in Colma. The couple were feted at a party last night by their children.

Half-a-Century Ago Justice Performed Rites For Couple Now Living In Colma

On November 2, 1902, a justice of the peace in the little town of Bertram, Texas, said the holy vows to Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bryant.

Sunday, 50 years later, that couple will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at 38 Taylor street, Colma, where they have lived since coming here from Texas ten years ago.

The long-united couple were toasted by their children last night at a dinner held at the Club Casino. Present at the family affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Roland Petrocchi, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Bryant and Willie Bryant, all of Daly City. They all vouched to spending a pleasant evening with the affable elder Bryants.

S. W. Bryant, until retirement, was a man of the earth in the middle west. He raised cotton, corn, wheat and other crops to earn his long life.

The couple first met in Travis City, Tex., while on their way to church. A group of eight persons all piled on a wagon drawn by a 2-horse team was making its way to the meeting place, and among that eight were the Mr. and Mrs. Bryants-to-be. After a short courtship of three months the two were married.

Before their marriage the couple spent much time in church activities and socials, and, as Mrs. Bryant says, "We had more fun then than the kids do now with all their tearing around."

As for recreation now, the Bryants like nothing better than a day of fishing. It doesn't matter whether it's ocean, lake or stream, just so it's fishing.

When asked what factor contributed to their long-standing marriage, Mrs. Bryant said, "We just make it a 50-50 basis on everything." Her spouse added that "If I had it all to do over again, I would."

What do the couple's children have to say about their parents' long married life? They wish them 50 more just such years.

Castelan Says Demo Past Tells Story

Speaking at a meeting Monday night of Daly City volunteers for Stevenson, Julius F. Castelan, chairman, told the group that the "past performance of the Democratic party is a yard stick of its future performance."

Some of the points he used to substantiate this statement were: That in 1932 14,000,000 Americans owned homes, while today 24,000,000 own homes.

He also pointed out that in 1932 the average wage per week was $17, while today it is $67.

Castelan went on to say that in 1932 there was no minimum wage law. Today we have a 75 cent minimum hourly wage, the 40 hour week, and extra pay for overtime, he pointed out.

OLPH Mothers Club Will Meet Tuesday

Tuesday, Nov. 4, is election day, and also an important date for the Mothers Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school.

Their monthly dessert whist party will be held at one o'clock sharp in the school auditorium. The seventh grade mothers are in charge under the direction of Mrs. Lois Kelly, and Mrs. Mary Madden is in charge of refreshments.

TRUCK DRIVER VISION

You might spare yourself an accident, and you might understand the truck driver's predicament better, if you realized that few trucks offer the excellent visibility that now is given by the average passenger car, according to the National Automobile club. The truck's huge body behind the driver's seat, its heavy pillars in the cab, and the high hood in front all tend to diminish vision.

Old Glory Post, Auxiliary Take Part In Past Commanders-Past Presidents Party

The costume parade will form at the Community Center on White street Friday evening at 6 p.m., and weave around the nearby streets back to the Center, where refreshments will be served to all, free of charge. After the parade prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Merchants from the Broadmoor Shopping Center have been contacted and prizes promised in large quantities. The judges will be chosen from civic organizations in the Village, and will be announced later.

To fill out the program there will be folk dancing and square dancing later at the Center, beginning at 8:30 p.m. for the older children, teen agers, adults, too, with a guarantee of enough activities to keep everyone busy and happy.

It is hoped that all the children in the area will participate and help make this year's Halloween celebration the happiest and safest kind of evening. Working closely with co-chairmen Mrs. De Berry, teacher from Garden Village school, and Mrs. Richard Hart, recreation chairman of the James L. Snell PTA, to arrange for refreshments and decorations for the affair are the following: Mesdames Remo Cuniberti, Joseph Mahoney, Harold McElhinny, William Proctor, Robert Fernekes, O. M. Warner, John Mendez, Al Harris, Donald Hurst, Jack Lagoria, Fred Stuke, and William Johns.

CHILD HEALTH TO BE MEETING TOPIC

Miss Antoinette Gattuccio, school nurse, Mr. Huajardo, P. E. coordinator, and Mrs. Schweickardt, guidance coordinator, will speak on health as related to their respective fields.

The sixth grade pupils will present a panel discussion on health. Susan Damon will speak on food. Cleanliness will be the subject chosen by Patricia Palmer. Carolyn Bordegaray has "Rest" as her topic. Ronald Lieberman will discuss exercise and Karen Williams will talk on prevention of disease. Frank Peasley will act as moderator. The work of these pupils is under the direction of the sixth grade teachers Mrs. Mary Miller, Miss Esther Jicka and Mr. James Hough.

Cider and doughnuts will be served by the sixth grade mothers and the hospitality committee after the meeting.

Our monthly meetings will feature child participation wherever possible in relation to our program because we feel the opportunity for self expression is an important part of their lives.

COLMA PANTHERS WIN FROM THE COLMA BULLDOGS · 15-0

ROCCHI, BRANDT RACK UP SCORES

The Colma Panthers continued their winning streak by decisively defeating the Colma Bulldogs, 15-0, in Saturdays A League feature game. George Rocchi and Bob Brandt again starred in a thrilling team victory. Rocchi scored first with a brilliant display of open field running, returning a punt for 75 yards and a T.D. Randy Hernlund led the defensive platoon by trapping a Bulldog in the endzone to increase the Panthers lead 8-0. Then, late in the final quarter Bob Brandt intercepted a Bulldog pass and followed some clever blocking into the endzone for the final score. Rocchi passed to Brandt for the conversion.

Standouts

Eddie Leveroni, Bill McKay, Mike Harmon, Lou Arriggi, Leroy Franzoia, Bill Beaton and Billy Massoni all played a sparkling game for the Panthers by rushing the Bulldogs repeatedly and knocking down passes all over the field. Roy Corner, the Panthers stellar pass receiver, was unable to play because of an injured knee.

The Bulldogs, led by the passing of Dan Rasmussen and the receiving of Rich Duncan and Bob Geiseker, were unable to penetrate the well organized defense of the Panthers. Larry Ziegler, Ronnie Moon, Gary Fairchild, Billy Clark, Mike Wedlake, James Hawthorne and Carl Mecchi all played a creditable game.

Giant Pull Upset

The Colma Giants pulled the upset of the season when they defeated the O.L.P.H. Lions in a highly competitive game. The game was tied 0-0 at the end of the regulation period of play, but recreation department rules call for an overtime period to break ties. The Giants gained the most yardage in the overtime period and won the game 1-0 by putting up a stout defense against the O.L.P.H. desparation passes. The new Colma Giants, led by Wayne Dunham and Joe Ordnez, got some spirited help from Marcus Glover, Kenny Day, Ronnie Jones and Ray Navarro to give their team a well-earned victory.

The Lions playing without the services of Gary Martinelli and Bob Nunes lost their second straight game. Tom Fenn, Jackie Baustista, Billy Howard and Ronald Bell carried the brunt of the offensive play, while Frank Cordellos, Henry Oliver, Richard Swickard, George Sutter, John Schancez and Donald Wickerley led the defensive platoon. The Lions lost their chance for victory when a last minute desparation pass was ruled incomplete in a very close play.

First Eagle Defeat

The O.L.P.H. Rams came roaring out of a defensive battle to hand the Colma Eagles their defeat of the season 6-0. Late in the third quarter, Bill Bricker of the Rams faded back as if to throw a long pass, and then shot a short screen pass to Joe Murphy who spun untouched into the end zone for the winning score. Anthony and Joe Stagnero, Ronnie Rose and Eddie Coleman caught some fine passes but were never able to shake loose for a score. Arthur Garcia, Robert Steele and Mike Brush all aided in their teams victory.

The Eagles led by Paul Tapia and Larry Garatti threatened to score throughout the game but were never able to penetrate the end zone. Dennis Mark, Peter Rogerson, Reuben Martinez, Billy Brown and John Miller played their usual fine game. This was the first loss for the Eagles and it gives them a tie with the Rams for first place.

Mustangs Down Cats

The Colma Mustangs led by the running of Wayne Guisi crushed the Colma Wildcats 12-0. Guisti broke loose for runs of 35 and 40 yards to sew up the game for the Mustangs. John Crane, Frank Belli, Roy Lanza, Claude Anger, Albert Tafoyia and Paul Henise provided the blocking and the defense necessary to beat the valiant Wildcats.

Jim Gustafson and Dale Weibel of the Wildcats aided by Gary Huston, Mike Deal, Jerry Rosenberg, Ricky Schweitzer, Kit Leslie, Tom Hill and Gary Cowden, put up a stirring battle on defense allowing very few pass completions, but were unable to stop the strong ground game of the Mustangs.

Saturdays games will complete the league title chase and a playoff will follow to determine the League champions. At this date it looks like a toss up between the Colma Bulldogs and the Colma Panthers in the A league and the Colma Eagles and the O.L.P.H. Rams in the B league.

Quail Hunters Will Walk More In '52

Because good food and water supplies generally have scattered the birds far and wide, quail hunters have to walk farther to bag their limits when the first of four California seasons opens November 1, according to a report from the Department of Fish and game.

Except for the five-county north coastal season which opens November 1, hunting begins on November 22 elsewhere.

Last year's total estimated bag of 1,500,000 quail may well be bettered in the 1952 seasons if hunters invest the necessary leg work, asserts Carlisle Van Ornum, state game supervisor.

"This has been a very good growing season. Birds have found food and water abundant," Van Ornum said. "Quail will not be found concentrated around water holes as they usually are, and this means more work for the average hunter."

Bag and possession limit in all areas is eight quail per day.

Jeffs Make Lots of Yardage... But No TDs

DOWN THE FIELD for a gainer goes Jeff right-halfback Wally Honeywell, but is waylaid by a jolting tackle from a San Matean in last week's game with the bearcats. The Indians, after their 14-0 setback at the hands of the San Mateans last week, are out for their first win of the season today against Palo Alto. The locals have looked good in workouts this week, reports Coach Joe McGrath. Mario Leveroni and Bill Allen, two of the team's top performers, may be out with injuries, but McGrath thinks his boys can do it, "if they can get away from fumbling for this one."

Mateans Hand Jeffs Fourth Straight Loss

INDIANS LEAD ON YARDAGE, FIRST DOWNS BUT CAN'T REGISTER SCORE

There was bad news again at Jefferson high school last week as the Indians shouldered their fourth loss in a winless season when the San Mateo Bearcats blanked them, 14-0.

The Indians, as in previous games, showed a lot of offensive class, ate up a lot of yardage, and demonstrated a fair-to-middlin' defense, but still couldn't come through in the tight spots.

Two Scoring Chances

Twice the Jeffs were within scoring distance, once on the opponents' four and another time on their nine yard line; but both times the Bearcat defense contingent held.

The Mateans drew blood first in the second quarter, after an Indian fumble had been recovered on the Jeff 33. Tom Guidry scored on a flat pass from Ralph Wensinger.

Their second score came with only 45 second left in the game, when Wensinger dove into the end zone from one-half yard out.

Statistics Lie

On the statistical side of the fray, Jefferson had it all over the Mateans. The locals made ten first downs, against five for the opponents. Total yardage, including rushing and passing, was 250 yards for the Jeffs, while the Bearcats compiled 216.

But the fumbling bug, coupled with the team's inexperience, was enough to give the San Mateo team the advantage.

Rosa Hits Eight

The Indians' sharpshooter, Ray Rosa, connected eight times in 18 tries for 105 yards, but missed quite a few receivers who were in the clear. Coach Joe McGrath said he thought Rosa had one of his worst days.

The Jeffs lost a total of 90 yards behind the line of scrimmage, mostly accountable to Rosa, who was tagged many times after fading back to pass. The locals also lost 40 yards on penalties, which came at injurious moments.

5.5 for Bockwinkel

Looking good on both defense and offense for the Indians was Nick Bockwinkel, who had a 5.5 yard average per carry and nabbed one pass.

Wally Honeywell also turned in a capable job, taking in two passes for 38 yards.

Joe Lewkowitz, showing up well as an offensive end, caught two passes, good for 31 yards.

Cited for stellar defensive play in the middle of the line were Vic Irons and Jack Thur.

Younger Demands Death For Narcotics Offense

A demand for capital punishment or life imprisonment for persons convicted of importing or selling narcotics was made this week by Arthur Younger, San Mateo county's Republican candidate for congress.

Speaking at a meeting of the San Mateo Lions Club here this week, Younger stated that persons found guilty of peddling narcotics should in his opinion be given no mercy for their offense.

Jeffs Take Double Win From Warriors

The Jefferson Indians 20s took over second place in the PAL basketball standings last week with their 19-17 victory over South San Francisco.

The 10s also did themselves proud, getting the third win in their division in an over time tilt with the Warriors, which they copped, 24-22.

In the 20 contest Rich Rodriques led local efforts with eight points.

In an exciting overtime contest Leo Hintermen sunk a long set shot to give the 10s their two point margin. Leading the little Indians was Larry Kennedy with 10 points.

Knowland Asks Vote For Arthur Younger

William F. Knowland, senior United States Senator from California, today made a direct appeal to the people of San Mateo county to elect Arthur Younger as their next congressman.

In a message received by Dan Minto, chairman of the "Younger for Congress" campaign committee, Knowland stated that "in Arthur Younger the people of San Mateo county have a candidate who has the ability, aggressiveness, and experience to forcefully represent them in Washington."

CENTRAL CLUB STILL LEADS BOWLING; VINCE & FRED'S TAKE OVER SECOND

Central Club took only one game this week in the Daly City-Colma bowling league but still remains in first place with 14 wins, against 7 losses. Vince and Fred's took a solid three games to take over second spot.

King's Market couldn't take a single game in Tuesday night's play, but still stand tied for third with Daly City-Colma Lions. Both have 12-9 records after the seven weeks of play.

San Bruno Lions' Ed Sperry notched up high game, 227, which was the second highest effort this season. Sperry also had a 558 series, which ranked among the top.

High series was claimed by Frank Thur, of Thur Meat, who rolled 585. Thur Meat also grabbed high team game with 904.

San Francisco Plays Final Home Game; Toughest Part of Schedule Yet to Come

San Francisco State's footballers make their final home appearance of the season Saturday, meeting Chico State in the traditional Homecoming game. The kickoff for the night contest is at 8 p.m.

The Gators, with a 3-2 record against "middle-time" opposition, head into the toughest part of their schedule. After Chico, the State crew faces San Diego State at San Diego, College of Idaho at Caldwell and Fresno State at Fresno.

Injuries Rack Squad

Coach Joe Verducci had hoped to be undefeated at this stage but ineligibility and injuries racked his squad badly. After being outmanned by Cal Poly 34-26, the Gators dropped a 20-6 decision to Santa Barbara last week.

Verducci has lost five first stringers for the year, including End Al Endriss, now playing with S. F. 49ers, Guard Don Morettini, Fullback Henry Marshall, Tackle Frank Ginanni and defensive Halfback Harley Felure. In addition, veteran backs John Fortson and Rudy Smith and Tackles Bob Foote and Bill Pritchard have missed a good part of the season with recurring injuries.

This was a vital blow to a squad that was strong on top, but lacked depth.

Toughest Season

The Gators hope to rally and salvage the season against by far the toughest schedule in the school's history.

As a whole, the team was down against Santa Barbara. There were bright spots, however. Quarterback Maury Duncan completed 10 out of 21 passes to run his seasonal total to 810 yards for five games.

End Merrill Jacobs caught eight of the tosses for 96 yards. Many of Jacobs' catches bordered on the sensational. Jack Jardine, the freshman who moved in at left half, led all ground gainers with 76 yards in eight cracks. Right halfback John O'Shea, the season's top gainer, got 70 yards to run his season total to 507.

Poor First Half

After a poor showing in the first half, the Gators battled back to trail 7-6, on the strength of Duncan's third quarter passes. But Santa Barbara returned a punt 90 yards for a TD and that turned it for the night.

The Gators will be favored over Chico State. The Wildcats have won only one—against Southern Oregon—but this is the type of traditional in which anything can happen. Chico State has an 8-7 margin over San Francisco in total games played and the Gators will be fighting to square it up.

Selix, Silberstein Win In Class "A" Sweepstake

In Class A medal play sweepstakes at Lake Merced golf course this week Sherm Selix and Dr. Charles Silberstein tied for first place with 71-3—68 and 74-6—68, respectively.

Hi Tessler garnered third spot with 81-12—69, while Sel Sachs was fourth with 78-8—70.

Class B play was claimed by John Haster, who combined a 13 handicap with a 81 round to give him a 68.

Tying for second were Dr. Al Cohn and Bill Kennedy, with 87-17—70 and 77-17-70, respectively. Joe Reinweroth was fourth with 86-15—71.

Two and a half million acres of first quality Douglas Fir forests in Oregon are managed on a sustained-yield basis.

A Newspaper EDITORIAL

The information published in this advertisement is a composite of many editorials that have appeared in California newspapers. Everybody is interested in the welfare of our schools and this advertisement is sponsored and paid for by American Citizens who believe in Justice for Education.

Our grandparents did not have the educational advantages which we take for granted today. But they had something else that took the place of a formal education and it served them well.

They called it common sense—the ability to distinguish right from wrong. They were able to sift the truth from falsehoods with the same skill that they sifted chaff from grain.

It was a simply worded pamphlet called Common Sense (written by Tom Paine) that stirred our forefathers to action and brought about our American Independence. Nothing in all the world has accomplished so much as the average citizen when he has used his head and solved our biggest problems with plain common sense.

On your ballot you will find an item that is known as Proposition Number 3. This is a taxation matter—nothing else. It is a question of whether privately operated schools of grammar and high school grades should be taxed. And with the usual amount of common sense you will come up with the right answer.

"What are the facts?" you ask and that's a natural question.

To begin with we all pay school taxes whether we have children attending school or not.

There is no criticism of our public school system involved. But there are over 200,000 children in the State of California that require special attention. Some of these children are handicapped with physical disabilities. Some are mentally backward and they require the patience of specially trained instructors.

Then, too, there are the wild bucking bronco youngsters that have to be tamed. There are probably one or two of these ramsunctious youngsters in your neighborhood. Turn them loose in a public school playground and they can wreck the place in a matter of seconds. In the privately operated school they are watched every second and they don't get away with anything. They are calmed down and tamed. And by the time that they are ready to be graduated you couldn't ask for finer citizens.

California is the only state in the union that levies a tax on private schools of the grammar and high school grades, that are not operated for profit. And the Californians who are for justice in education feel that the laws should be changed. They don't think that a school that isn't being operated for profit should be taxed the same as you would tax a warehouse, a barn or a coal yard.

It isn't costing the taxpayers of California as much as one thin dime to educate and train the 200,000 children that are now attending privately operated schools. The cost of operating all of these schools is being taken care of by parents who have every right to use our public schools. They are paying all of the taxes that are being assessed against their properties and they are not complaining about those taxes. But they feel, and not unreasonably, that when they have paid their part toward the maintenance of our public schools, that it isn't fair to tax them a second time.

That is what our grandparents would call common sense. If our public school system had to supply the necessary schools to house 200,000 children, the buildings alone would cost the taxpayers of the state over 300 million dollars. And if we had to pay 4% interest on that kind of a bond issue it would cost the taxpayers an additional 12 million dollars each year.

But that's only the beginning. If you will picture in your mind 40 children to a class room and 200,000 youngsters that must be taken care of, you'll find that you would need 5,000 additional teachers. And this doesn't include the Superintendents, Principals, Janitors and other employes that it takes to operate a school.

The truth of the matter is this — the privately operated schools are saving the taxpayers of California over 40 million dollars each year. If that sum was to be added to the taxes we are already paying the load would be staggering.

None of the privately operated colleges such as Santa Clara, College of the Pacific, St. Mary's, Stanford or the University of San Francisco pay taxes. Yet nobody complains. And so the Californians who are interested in justice in education ask that the same consideration be given to the privately operated schools of grammar and high school grades, that are not being operated for profit.

Governor Earl Warren and almost every member of the California Legislature are in favor of Proposition Number 3 and they are asking every citizen to support this measure.

A good question to ask is: Who is opposing this Proposition Number 3?

It is being opposed by people who say, that in taxing the private schools that are not operated for profit, the state collects approximately $600,000 in revenue that it otherwise would not get. And the Californians who believe in justice in education ask in reply: Is it better to collect $600,000.00 than it is to save the taxpayers $40,000,000.00 each year?

Let us keep in mind the facts, that the privately operated schools that are not operated for profit must still continue to buy their own text books. They must still provide their own fire insurance and keep their buildings in repair. They must teach the same things that are taught in the public schools. They are all operated under the direct supervision of our state school authorities.

A vast majority of the newspapers in the State of California are giving Proposition Number 3 their support. They have weighed the facts and they feel that these privately operated schools are saving the taxpayers an enormous amount of money. They have pointed out, that with the population of California increasing at the rate of more than 300,000 each year, our school problems are going to become more and more acute. And like our grandparents who used their common sense, the newspaper editors are saying, "Vote Yes on Proposition Number 3."

This is one of those rare tax measures where the taxpayers save a lot of money by giving a little.

Keen Interest in Folk Dancing Shown; Beginners' Classes to Start Wednesday

Due to the tremendous interest shown by the public at the spectacle of Sunday's folkdancing at the opening of the new recreation building, a demand for a beginner's class has been made.

A new beginners' class will be started Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 7449 Mission street, under the direction of Muriele Pabst, who has been teaching folk dancing to all age groups in the community for many years, under the auspices of the Daly City recreation department.

"Folk and square dancing is clean, wholesome, inexpensive fun," the recreation department said. "It has become increasingly popular as a year 'round recreation."

Most of the summer resorts have included it in their programs. By learning now you will be ready for more fun next summer. Folk dancing is also the "open door" to new friends, as nearly every town and state has some type of folk or square dancing, and a common interest is a sure way to make new acquaintances," according to the local department.

The class starting Wednesday is for adults. The recreation department has pointed out that all dances are easy and plenty of time is given to learning the steps and patterns.

Suggested attire are low heeled shoes, cotton shirts and men's slacks.

TEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Thurs., Oct. 29.—Enemy bombs blasting in Daly City streets, incendiary fires raging in local buildings and homes, and all the terrors that were London's in the days of the Nazi raids over that city will be simulated here tonight in a mass air raid drill of Daly City's civilian defense army.

Ordered by the Office of Civilian Defense for all California cities for an inspection tour, the drill tonight is Daly City's chance to show their wares before Army and OCD officials, Arthur J. Bodien, local civilian defense director, announced.

Far-reaching flames threatened an entire Mission street business block, Sunday morning, when a powerful blaze from a gas cooker soared upward burning part of the roof of Central Creamery, 6331 Mission street, but Daly City fire department had the fire under control in five minutes.

The fire started when the flames of a gas cooker in the creamery set off cooking grease and travelled up the chimney flue. Only the janitor, who was working up in the front of the building, was in the creamery when the blaze started.

Three companies of the Daly City fire department, 1, 2 and 4 answered the alarm.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Thurs., Oct. 29.—A first major move to shed new light on the meaning of the title of "plumbing inspector" in this municipality and a critical analysis of the local plumbing and building ordinances will be effected by the City Council at the caucus meeting, Monday evening of next week.

Plumbing Inspector George Riddell will be notified to appear and present a list of all inspections made since March of 1936, when he was appointed to the post.

The index will be checked against the amount of collections received on plumbing permits issued in Daly City.

A Colma rancher, Andronico Agresti, 48, was fatally injured Saturday evening, about 8:45 o'clock, when he was struck down at Mission and Bismark streets by an automobile driven by John Wilson, 19, of Willits street, Daly City.

Agresti died thirty minutes later in the Villa Sanitarium. In a desperate effort to save him the injured man was placed in an iron lung.

About a year ago the unfortunate man was struck by another auto near the spot where he this time sustained death injuries.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Oct. 28.—It now seems probable that a racing meet will be held at the Tanforan race track next spring. According to a story appearing in the San Francisco News, the prospects of the followers of racing being permitted to again journey to Tanforan to witness contests between the fast horses are growing brighter.

If present plans of Joseph A. Murphy materialize, there will be horse race meeting at Tanforan in the spring. Murphy, lessee of the Tanforan track, arrived in San Francisco Monday from the East.

After having tasted defeat for the last five successive games the Jefferson Union high school football team, as well as the student body and faculty of the high school, feel pretty good these days.

This grand and glorious feeling comes as a result of the outcome of the championship football game last Friday, played on Jefferson field.

The members of the team who lowered the colors of South San Francisco in the championship game were: Friend, center; Gibbons and Jenkins, guards; Williams and Perada, tackles; Brush and Abbott, ends; Planskly, quarterback; Aiello and Gohl, halfbacks; Kennedy, fullback.

The cliper ship "Flying Cloud" made the trip from New York to San Francisco in 89 days, 21½ hours, in August, 1851.

GOP LEADERS SEE SMASHING VICTORY

A smashing Republican victory throughout San Mateo county was predicted today by party leaders as they announced plans for heavy election day activities.

"San Mateo County gives every indication of returning a large majority for Eisenhower, Nixon and Younger" said Frank Ingersoll, Jr., chairman of the Republican county Central Committee. "We had a large majority for the Republican ticket in 1948" Ingersoll said, "and, in fact, were the top GOP county in California. We expect to do even better this time."

Each of the 11 headquarters in the county will be open all day Tuesday. Voters needing transportation to the polls, or baby sitters during the voting period, may obtain these free services by contacting their local Republican headquarters.

In Daly City the headquarters is located at 6434 Mission and the phone number is PL. 5-7212.

SMASH BOTH McLAIN SCHEMES

George H. McLain, the perennial pension promoter who finances his operations by ruthless appeals to pensioners for a "cut" each month from their pension payments—he even asks old people to send him their gold jewelry and keepsakes —is back on the ballot this year with TWO unsavory schemes.

McLAIN's PROPOSITION NO. 10 is a blackjack scheme. It seeks to penalize all the fine civic groups and organizations that have fought his unsound schemes in the past, by denying use of public funds for Chamber of Commerce and tourist promotion activities, 4-H Club youthbuilding work, Veterans' Rehabilitation programs, Labor Day observances sponsored by labor unions, school trustee organization work, and other useful, beneficial purposes. Proposition No. 10 is vicious and senseless.

McLAIN's PROPOSITION NO. 11 is a re-hash of the old McLain Pension Scheme adopted by a narrow margin in 1948 and overwhelmingly repealed the following year, after it had sent pension administration costs soaring to fantastic heights. Once again, Proposition No. 11 would transfer the responsibility for determining pension eligibility and disbursing pension funds from local governments to one State Bureau. It is a scheme to achieve vast political power by creating a political pension dictatorship.
